

Name _____

Clean water is good for all living things and the environment. When water is polluted it becomes unhealthy for many living things. If industry is not managed properly it can pollute water. Discuss why dirty water is not good for drinking and why plants die from polluted water.

Use old magazines to find 4 small pictures that show the affects of dirty water in the environment and glue these in the boxes below.

